PLEASURE ...

MRS. E. T. ROUX

This annual is dedicated to a woman who for more years than we like to put in print has served her alma mater, Florida Southern College. While her wonderful husband was alive and was a member of the Board of Trustees, she was busy, too, helping and loving her college. Since his going away, she has taken his place on the Board.

Because of her long association with the College, the students, faculty and Board members hold a big place in their hearts for her.

There is magic in that small white stick, that baton. Watch it with a single rap call the jumbled conversation of players and instruments into silence; watch it with a single compelling arc in the air, weld the voices of many instruments into one voice. There is magic in that small white stick—or in the hand that wields it.

Every bit the orchestra conductor, Professor Samuel Griffiths is the unifying agent; his is the hand that brings in one movement perfect harmony from the orchestra. The orchestra is his creation; he has made it with those articulate, knowing hands. Through the years he has held it together, a hard working group whose labors are appreciated by the whole campus.

A LONG COMEDY IN TWO ACTS

First Act: In the Journalism Room

Tuesday is the deadline. The room is jammed with wild-eyed students writing or tracing down stories. Copy is rushed to the printers. Curses are pronounced on delinquent reporters. Columnists rush in and out. Front page make-up is checked.

Second Act: In the Printing Office

Late stories pour in. More curses are pronounced on delinquent reporters. The paper rolls off the press. A large majority of the staff has survived.

R. O. T. C.

The R.O.T.C. at F.S.C. was initially established as a Military Police Corps unit in May of 1951. Colonel Glenn G. Dickenson was assigned as Commanding Officer of the new unit and Major John T. Stansill was detailed as Assistant Professor of Military Science and Tactics. Since Florida Southern had never had any type of military unit before, there was a great deal of work to be completed before school opened and the program started.

The old Arts Building was reconverted to army specifications and became the "Little Pentagon." Thousands of dollars of government equipment began to arrive on the campus, and plans were completed for an anticipated enrollment of 250 cadets.

In August, Captain Lewis O. Giuffrida was assigned to the R.O.T.C. unit after his return from Korea, and the military teaching staff was completed.

M Sgt. Marvin Beaman, a veteran of 27 years in the Regular Army was detailed as Sgt. Major of the unit, and Sgts. Wilson, Beheler and Simmons were assigned by the Department of the Army. All of the officers and enlisted men are members of the Regular Army.

The cadets are organized as an M. P. battalion, and the effects of the military training can already be seen in the military bearing of the R.O.T.C. cadets.

JOHN T. STANSILL
Major, M.P.C.

Major Stansill was assigned to F.S.C. from the Provost Marshal General's Center in Georgia. A veteran of 12 years in the Regular Army, Major Stansill served in Europe during World War II and saw action in many campaigns.

This is truly a "centennial summer" for Alpha Delta Pi, the oldest national sorority for college women. It was chartered on May 15, 1851, at Wesleyan College in Macon, Georgia, with a motto of "We live for each other."

The Gamma Gamma Chapter, one of 79 in the nation, was founded on this campus April 27, 1946, to promote and maintain the high scholastic, social and moral standards inspired by the traditions of the sorority. Their flower is the violet and their colors are blue and white.

Beta Sigma Omicron was founded at the University of Missouri on December 12, 1888, and was installed here at F.S.C. on March 15, 1947. It was the second national sorority to sponsor a philanthropic project when, in 1913, it first contributed to Pine Mountain Settlement School in Kentucky.

Prior to the installation on campus, BSO had left a mark on our campus when an alumnae donated the money for the chapel.

The sorority colors are ruby and pink; the magazine is "The Urn"; and their motto is "Let us so live that the world may be better for our having lived in it."

Knights Anonymous is a new fraternal organization on campus, having been founded May 11, 1950, and is independent only in the sense that it is not affiliated nationally.

Many of the large and active fraternities here have had beginnings like the Knights, so with a look into the future we include them on this page.

Phi Sigma Kappa was founded in 1873 at the University of Massachusetts and is a charter member of the national Inter-Fraternity Council.

Today there are over 60 chapters with about 22,000 members. The local chapter was designated Omega Triton after being initiated from the local fraternity, Pi Alpha, on April 1, 1950.

Their principles compare with Jeffersonian democracy in content with the outstanding one being that membership is open to any man regardless of race, religion or financial status.
